Morales' vast powers up to Congress to limit

WASHINGTON—President Vicente Fox's sweeping powers to appoint and dismiss judges, prosecutors and police chiefs have drawn criticism from lawmakers and human rights groups.

The powers, which Fox inherited from his predecessor, President Zedillo, have been a source of controversy since they were first granted in 1995.

Human rights groups have accused Fox of using his powers to appoint judges who are sympathetic to the government and to dismiss prosecutors who are investigating human rights abuses.

Lawmakers have also criticized Fox's powers, saying they are too broad and that they should be limited.

Some lawmakers have called for a constitutional amendment to limit Fox's powers.

Others have called for a new election to limit Fox's powers.

But Fox's supporters say his powers are necessary to ensure the stability of the country and to protect the rule of law.

They say Fox has used his powers to appoint judges who are impartial and to dismiss prosecutors who are corrupt.

They also say Fox has used his powers to appoint judges who are experienced and to dismiss prosecutors who are inexperienced.

They say Fox has used his powers to appoint judges who are honest and to dismiss prosecutors who are dishonest.

They say Fox has used his powers to appoint judges who are competent and to dismiss prosecutors who are incompetent.

They say Fox has used his powers to appoint judges who are fair and to dismiss prosecutors who are unfair.

Texters clear air with PBA in meeting

By Ramsey R. Castillo

PHILADELPHIA — The Philadelphia 76ers and the Professional Basketball Association (PBA) cleared the air between them on Tuesday, after a series of misunderstandings and miscommunications that had led to a tense situation. The 76ers' general manager, Sam Hinkley Jr., and PBA president, Robert Smith, met for a two-hour session to discuss the team's recent performance and the league's future. Hinkley, who had been critical of the PBA's management, expressed his disappointment with the team's record and the league's lack of support. Smith, on the other hand, defended the PBA's actions and expressed his confidence in the team's future. The meeting ended on a positive note, with both sides agreeing to work together to improve the league and the team's performance.

Vivas leads PH bets advance

By Juan Rodriguez

PHILADELPHIA — The Philadelphia 76ers and the Professional Basketball Association (PBA) cleared the air between them on Tuesday, after a series of misunderstandings and miscommunications that had led to a tense situation. The 76ers' general manager, Sam Hinkley Jr., and PBA president, Robert Smith, met for a two-hour session to discuss the team's recent performance and the league's future. Hinkley, who had been critical of the PBA's management, expressed his disappointment with the team's record and the league's lack of support. Smith, on the other hand, defended the PBA's actions and expressed his confidence in the team's future. The meeting ended on a positive note, with both sides agreeing to work together to improve the league and the team's performance.

Figure 1 is a 3D scatter plot showing the distribution of 1000 simulated data points. The axes are labeled 'x', 'y', and 'z'. The points are clustered in a roughly spherical shape centered around the origin, with a radius of approximately 10 units. The 'x' axis ranges from -10 to 10, the 'y' axis from -10 to 10, and the 'z' axis from -10 to 10. The points are more densely packed in the center and become sparser towards the edges of the sphere.

ADB sells $339M in 'clean energy' bonds

Avic reports 3.1% rise in 4-mo vehicle sales

MANILA, Philippines — The Asian Development Bank (ADB) has sold $339 million in new bonds to help finance clean energy projects in the Philippines, the bank's Manila office said Tuesday.

The bonds, which are part of the bank's $1 billion "Green Bonds" program, were sold at a discount to their face value, indicating strong demand from investors.

The proceeds from the sale will be used to finance a variety of clean energy projects, including solar, wind, and hydropower. The bank said that the sale of the bonds is a significant milestone in its efforts to promote sustainable development in the Philippines.
